

MRS. CHADWICK TO REMAIN IN PRISON

Gives Up Hope Of Freedom Until She Has Hearing.

IS MORE RESIGNED TO HER FATE

The Testimony of Andrew Carnegie Is Not Regarded as Relevant—Grand Jury at Cleveland Is Now Hearing Evidence Against the Woman.

New York, Dec. 13.—Early this morning bail had not been secured for the release of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick from the Tombs prison nor had she given notice of any intention to waive the examination in this city and go to Cleveland for a hearing.

Apparently reconciled temporarily to prison restraints and fare, and satisfied that should she attempt to provide the bail now required, the amount would be immediately so increased as to become practically prohibitive. It was believed today that Mrs. Chadwick had consented to act upon the advice of her counsel and await an examination in New York next Saturday.

Mrs. Chadwick appears to have entirely recovered from the severe attacks of nervousness which attended her first few hours in the Tombs and apprehension of a collapse are no longer entertained by the prison physician.

Now that there is a prospect of a hearing in this city speculation as to where and how Mr. Carnegie will be called to testify will be explained by the remarkable disclosures made by the treasurer, Iri Reynolds, of the Wade Park bank of Cleveland. The charge against Mrs. Chadwick was that she signed a check for $12,500 when she had no funds in the Oberlin bank and then procured their certification of the check by the two bank officials under arrest in Oberlin. The authorities in attempting to put Mr. Carnegie on the stand may argue, however, that the bank officials certified the check because in various "Carnegie" notes about which they had heard so much and some of which they had seen. Therefore, it will be claimed, Mr. Carnegie's testimony is not relevant. A subpoena for Andrew Carnegie to testify in the Chadwick case was received by the authorities in this city today. It was issued in Ohio.

Grand Jury Working on Case.
Cleveland, Dec. 13.—The grand jury of Cuyahoga county commenced today an investigation into the affairs of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick. Although it is the desire of the prosecuting attorney to secure an indictment for forgery, he has arranged his evidence in such a manner as to cover pretty much all manner of irregularities in financial dealing, and if a vote against Mrs. Chadwick, should be refused in any one particular, he is confident of holding her on something else. His main dependence, however, is the evidence pointing to forgery. Among the witnesses present this morning at the opening of the session of the grand jury were C. K. Whitney, of Oberlin, and Receiver Lyons, of the Citizen's bank of Oberlin.

MARKET STILL UNSETTLED.

The Prices of Stock Continue Their Downward Stride.

New York, Dec. 13.—There was another opening smash in prices of stocks today, the trouble again centering in Amalgamated Copper.

The market fluctuated unevenly after the opening and then went lower. The London prices for Americans before the opening here were generally higher and gave no hint of the storm hanging over the market.

The opening break created considerable uneasiness, though nothing like last Thursday's demoralization followed. Nevertheless, the feeling was one of vague alarm. Traders seemed of the opinion that last week's liquidation had not yet exhausted itself and it was clear that a great number of the accounts were being closed. London was reported to have sold 40,000 shares, including a great deal of steel common and preferred. Wire houses also sold and representatives of prompt local brokerage firms were openly bearish. The brokers operating for Boston were said to have sold copper and other stocks extensively.

Still Sing "Old Hundred."

Chicago, Dec. 13.—The statement that the doxology had been displaced at the University of Chicago and that instead of "Old Hundred" "Alma Mater" be sung at the close of the junior college chapel service, was a mistake. The doxology never was sung at the close of the service, but at the beginning, where it continues to be sung. The "Alma Mater" which has been sung for a concluding hymn, has been itself the characteristics of a hymn, dignity and elevation of sentiment. But it does not displace the doxology or impair the religious tone of the exercise.

Boat Caught in Ice Gauge.

Bellair, O., Dec. 13.—The ferryboat Amelia A., while crossing to Renwood with 40 passengers, was crushed by an ice closing and sank in the middle of the Ohio river. The passengers crawled out on the ice and were nearly dead from exposure when rescued. The boat is a total loss.

NEWS FROM NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Judge Swayne Guilty—Senator Smoot of Utah, Again on Trial.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Eight Republican members of the house judiciary committee, Representatives Parker (N. J.), Jenkins (Wis.), Alexander (N. Y.), Littlefield (Me.), Thomas (Iowa), Gillette (Calif.), Pearre (Md.) and Warner (Ill.) today submitted to the house their views of the case of Judge Swayne, of the northern district of Florida.

While disagreeing in some places with the views submitted for the full committee last week by Representative Palmer (Pa.), they say that the question of charging $10 a day for expenses has been brought out for the first time in the additional testimony taken since last session and laid before the committee. With respect to the record on that point they are of the opinion that an impeachable offense has been made out. This makes the committee practically unanimous for the impeachment although they differ on the ground.

Hearings of the protests against Mr. Rede Smoot, the junior senator from Utah, retaining his seat in the United States senate, were resumed today on the committee on privileges and elections. The room was crowded, women predominating among the spectators as was the case last session. Senator Smoot arrived early today.

After the reading of the journal the house today went into committee of the whole for the consideration of the pension bills with Mr. Currier, of New Hampshire, in the chair. The senate today passed a joint resolution granting temporary occupancy of a part of a government reservation in Washington, D. C., for the American railway appliance exhibition.

Negro Mail Clerk on Trial.

Charleston, Dec. 13.—Aaron P. Prioleau, a negro who recently ran for congress, and whose contest for Congressmen Legare's seat is still pending from the last congress, is on trial in the United States district court, on the charge of tampering with the mails. The defendant is conducting his own case, with the assistance of two negro lawyers. The government seems to have a strong case against the negro congressional aspirant.

"Academic Freedom" Author Cheered.

Moscow, Dec. 13.—The students assembled today in front of the residence of Professor Timiriazoff and cheered him for an article "Academic Freedom" recently published by the professor. The latter, who is an invalid, came to his window and bowed his acknowledgments. The students then marched in procession through the principal streets singing "The Marseillaise." The police did not interfere.

The prefect of police has forbidden the police to forcibly expel Jew merchants who are not entitled to come to Moscow and instead to report such cases to him.

SENDS ASHES TO FIRST LOVE.

German Merchant Who Dies in America Made Strange Request.

New York, Dec. 13.—According to the provision of his will, the ashes of Fritz Harichel, a well-to-do merchant of Haledon, N. J., will be sent to his bereaved sweetheart in Germany.

He left Germany under orders years ago because of Socialistic expressions and pledged his troth to a young woman, but after a time in America, he married an heiress and reared a family. Memory of the object of his first love in Germany always remained fresh in his mind and through his life he corresponded with her. When his will was read he had left his estate to his son on condition that his body be cremated and the ashes sent back to the woman. This has been arranged and the ashes will be shipped by mail.

London, Dec. 13.—Spencer Charrington, the oldest member of the house of commons, is dead. He represented the Tower Hamlets in the Conservative interests for nearly 50 years. This almost ninetian (he was born in 1818), distinguished himself at the close of the last session by sitting through two all-night debates when he thought the government's position was threatened, a feat of endurance which his colleagues recognized by presenting him with a commemorative silver cup.
